Review: TYPO3Camp Vienna 2017 – watch the video!

What is TYPO3Camp Vienna?

TYPO3Camp Vienna, established in 2016, is the first international TYPO3Camp in Austria. Within a span of 2.5 days, the event's main goal is to boost networking, learning, socializing, and connecting. TYPO3Camp Vienna is an independent non-profit barcamp event, organized by volunteers and financed mainly by sponsors.

TYPO3Camps all across Europe – such as in Munich (DE), Stuttgart (DE), Hamburg (DE), Berlin (DE), Venlo (NL) or Nantes (FR) – rank among the permanent institutions of the great open source TYPO3 Community and aim to fuel the exchange of TYPO3 knowledge.

Why sponsoring TYPO3Camp Vienna 2019?

- Present your company or institution as a part of the globally renowned TYPO3 Community
- Get directly in touch with an innovative, tech-affine, highly-connected target audience
- Generate exposure through press releases, newsletters, social media, printed matter & more
- Join brands like Greenpeace, Lufthansa or Deutsche Bank in being part of the TYPO3 family
- Support the open source project TYPO3 and help pushing the worldwide digital transformation

Why a barcamp?

Like all TYPO3Camps, TYPO3Camp Vienna is organized as a barcamp event, featuring open workshops and sessions without predetermined agenda. The sessions and their topics are chosen and moderated by the organizers from the proposals of all participants.

This creates an open culture and gives all participants the opportunity to learn new things, exchange ideas with experts and to present themselves.
